13. RIGHT TO OBJECT

You may, on reasonable grounds, object to us using your information. If you object, we will stop using your information, except if the law requires us to use it. If you object to us using your information, please take note of the fact that this may affect the functioning and management of the Challenge and its related activities in relation to you.

14. SHARING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will keep your personal information confidential and only share it with others in terms of this Privacy Policy, if you consent to it, or if the law requires us to share it. We have trusted relationships with carefully selected third parties who perform services for us. All these service providers, partners / sponsors have a contract with us in terms whereof they have a legal obligation to secure your personal information and to use it only in a way that we permit, especially having regard to the nature of the information being children's personal information.

In general, we may share your information with our affiliates, partners / sponsors, third party service providers, regulatory and governmental authorities (if they request us to do so), and any other third party if the law requires us to share it.

We may share your information for any of the lawful basis provided for under local Data Protection Law, including compliance with a mandatory legal obligation, for the fulfillment of our legitimate purpose and in the public interest.

For the avoidance of doubt, the use of our website shall expressly allow us to share your Personal Information only with trusted third parties.

15. HOW SECURE IS YOUR INFORMATION?

We are committed to implementing appropriate technical and other security measures to protect the integrity and confidentiality of your information. We protect and manage information that we hold about you by using electronic and computer safeguards like firewalls, data encryption, and physical and electronic access control to our buildings.

We only authorise access to information to those employees who require it to fulfil their designated responsibilities and such information will not be processed in any way so as to adversely affect your privacy.

16. QUALITY AND ACCESS TO YOUR INFORMATION

We want to ensure that your information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove any information that you think is inaccurate, by sending us an email to info@wavumbuzi.africa.

You have the right to request us to provide you with information that we hold about you. You must contact us directly to do so or send an email to info@wavumbuzi.africa.

17. RETENTION OF INFORMATION

We shall retain your personal information only for as long as necessary to satisfy the purposes for which it is processed in terms of this Privacy Policy or the Challenge Terms, but we may retain the information for a longer period in cases that it is:

- (i) required or authorized by law;
- (ii) reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose;
- (iii) for legitimate business purposes;
- (iv) authorized or consented by you or if a child by the school;
- (v) for historical, statistical, journalistic literature and art or research purposes.

We may keep information indefinitely and pseudonymize in a de-identified format for research and statistical purposes. Personal information that is de-identified cannot be used to identify you.

This Privacy Policy also applies when we retain your information, even if our relationship has ended.

18. TRANS-BORDER FLOW OF INFORMATION

We may transfer your information to foreign countries for retention purposes or if our service providers are cross border or use systems cross border. If you continue to use our Website, you expressly agree that we may transfer the information cross border for these purposes.

Where transfer of your information is necessary, we shall ensure appropriate safeguards are in place in the foreign country for the security and protection of your information.

19. DELETION OF INFORMATION

We shall delete your information once it becomes obsolete.

20. SECURITY BREACH

We have put in place internal measures to ensure security of your data. However, in any instance where an identified breach of your data poses a real risk of harm to your personal data we shall notify relevant authorities within the required legal timeframe of becoming aware of such breach.

If you want to report any concerns about our privacy practices or if you suspect any breach regarding your information, kindly notify us by sending an email to info@wavumbuzi.africa.

21. LODGING A COMPLAINT
